

March 2-4, 2018

Arnold Martial Arts Festival (AMAF)

Open Martial Arts Championships

Korean Martial Arts, Japanese Martial Arts, Chinese Martial Arts and More
Excludes - MMA Adult Full Contact, Jujitsu/Grappling Adult Gi/No Gi Submission

November 6, 2017

Letter of Confirmation

Shihan Mike Monaco - Kyokushin

The Arnold Martial Arts Festival is pleased to officially confirm that Kyokushin Karate Demonstration Team led by Shihan Mike Monaco will be performing during the Arnold Martial Arts Festival which will be held on March 2-4, 2018 at the Ohio Expo Center.

The Arnold Martial Arts Festival will be open to various disciplines and styles of martial arts within but not limited to Korean Martial Arts such as Taekwondo, Japanese Martial Arts such as Karate, and Chinese Martial Arts such as Wushu Kung Fu; but will not include full contact MMA ("Mixed Martial Arts"), Jiu Jitsu gi- or no-gi grappling adult submission competition, Muay Thai, or amateur or professional boxing.

We are confident that Shihan Mike Monaco's expertise, experience, and organizational skills will transform this historical event into a tremendous success and that the Arnold Martial Arts Festival will contribute to the unity of the martial arts communities throughout the world.

The Arnold Martial Arts Festival will truly provide a platform upon which to promote the diversity and noble principles of martial arts across the globe through this partnership.

We look forward to working with you and all the leaders of the martial arts disciplines representing martial arts and martial artists throughout the world.

Sincerely,

SPGM Joon P. Choi, Chairman
Arnold Martial Arts Festival
President - UMAF, WUMA, WSMKU, USTA, OMAC
Master Andy Moo Choi, Chairman of Operation